Instructions for Filing and Serving "Objections to Garnishment" (Form 3CC MC 49)

If you received a writ of garnishment (form 3CC MC 12, MC 13, or MC 52), you can object to that garnishment only if:

- your money is exempt (protected) from garnishment by law (see the list of exempt funds on the back of your writ of garnishment form),
- you have an installment payment order signed by a judge (form MC 15a),
- the maximum amount of money that can be garnished by law is already being withheld by another court order,
- you already paid the judgment in full,
- the garnishment was not properly issued (for example, it was issued on false information) or the garnishment is invalid (for example, the writ was served on the garnishee after the service deadline, or the interest, costs, or judgment amount are inaccurate).

You cannot use this form to challenge the judgment/ordered restitution or because you are unable to pay the judgment/ordered restitution.

1. How do I file an objection?

You file an objection by completing the form and filing it with the same court that signed the writ of garnishment. There is no cost for filing an objection except in probate court cases.

2. Fill out the Objection form.

Write in the court number, case number, the court address, victim's name, and the name and address of the defendant exactly as they are on the writ of garnishment.

Write in the date the garnishment was issued (see the lower left-hand corner of the writ of garnishment). Check the box that states the reason you are objecting to the garnishment. If there is more than one reason, check all that apply. Write in the date that you were served (the date you received) a copy of the writ of garnishment.

Write in the date you complete the form and sign your name.

3. Make four (4) copies of the completed objection form.

4. File the Objection with the County Clerk.

File all four (4) copies of your objection with the County Clerk in person or by first-class mail. If you mail the objection, include a postage-paid and self-addressed envelope so that the County Clerk can return to you two (2) copies with the Notice of Hearing completed.

5. Serve the Objection.

When you receive the two (2) copies of the objection with the Notice of Hearing completed, serve a copy on the garnishee by first-class mail. Complete the Certificate of Mailing on the bottom of your copy of the form. Make a copy of this and file it with the County Clerk. You can do this either in person or by first-class mail. Keep your copy for yourself.

Bring all documents to the hearing to support the objections that you checked on the objection form.
