NOTICE REGARDING VIDEO CONFERENCING
For Assigned Appellate Counsel (Criminal Division)

Effective November 1, 2011, all assigned appellate counsel for the Third Judicial Circuit of Michigan may utilize video conferencing at the William Dickerson Facility or the Detroit or Lansing SADO office for inmate visitations outside of the Wayne County area. Although, PURSUANT TO Minimum Standard 2 and the MAACS Comment to that Standard, in-person inmate visitation is preferred, inmate visitation by video conferencing is permitted and appellate counsel are encouraged to utilize the video conferencing facilities.

The use of this technology will reduce your travel time, as well as the additional mileage on your vehicle. The rate for the Video Conferencing "visit" will be the same as going to the Mound Correctional Facility, $75.00.

Assigned appellate counsel must contact Court Reporting Services at (313) 224-2086 or visit 917 Frank Murphy Hall of Justice to schedule a video conference with your client at the William Dickerson Facility. Scheduling a video conference at one of the SADO offices can be accomplished by visiting SADO's on-line scheduler at www.sado.org and log-in using your account log-in credentials previously emailed to you. Specific instructions can be obtained from Court Reporting Services, Room 917 of the Frank Murphy Hall of Justice or from the Court's website at www.3rdcc.org.
